

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Statement

Worcester County Library acknowledges the impact of historical inequities and commits to strengthening our relationship with underserved communities. The library recognizes the value that diverse thoughts and experiences bring to our community. We are committed to providing library staff with EDI educational opportunities, listening to the voices of underserved communities, building partnerships, and developing programs, services, and collections that are welcoming, diverse, and inclusive.